

STATEMENT ABOUT THIS YEAR'S EVENT

The Cream Cheese Festival Committee has been following the guidance from New York State and other governing entities and announces we are continuing to move forward with holding our festival this year.

The date of the festival will be Saturday, Sept. 18, keeping with the traditional date of the third Saturday in September.

Due to the nature of our festival being a non-ticketed, non-gated event, this means we don't have the ability to limit crowd sizes the same way closed grounds venues are able to do. With that in mind, we will continue to follow any guidance in place leading up to and on the date of the festival. This may mean modifications will need to be made in order for us to host an event that is both safe and fun for all to attend.

We thank you for your continued patience and understanding as we navigate the challenges of hosting an event that draws thousands of people from and to our region. Above all, we ask everyone remember this event is run solely by volunteers who are doing their best to provide a wholesome, family-friendly event for our community.

Stay tuned for updates as we continue planning for the festival!
